FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

16. Plaintiff is a consumer who is the victim of inaccurate reporting by Defendants American Express, Experian, Equifax, and Transunion (collectively, “Defendants”), and has suffered particularized and concrete harm.

17. Experian, Equifax, and Transunion are three of the largest consumer reporting agencies (“CRAs”) as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1681a(f).

18. The CRAs’ primary business is the sale of consumer reports (commonly referred to as “credit reports”) to third parties and consumers.

19. Experian, Equifax, and Transunion each have a duty, under the FCRA, to follow reasonable procedures to ensure that the consumer reports they sell meet the standard of “maximum possible accuracy.” 15 U.S.C. §1681e(b).

20. In January 2024 Plaintiff discovered an American Express account ending in 21001 (the “Account”) being reported in error – specifically the Account is reporting with a balance past due after the Account was settled and paid by Plaintiff.

21. In January 2022 Plaintiff entered into a settlement agreement for the payoff of the Account with American Express.

22. Plaintiff made all the required payments per the terms of the settlement agreement and fully satisfied Plaintiff’s obligation on the Account.

23. Despite receiving the full benefit of settlement on the Account, American Express continues to report a balance past due on Plaintiff’s consumer credit reports.

24. The false information regarding the Account appearing on Plaintiff's consumer reports harms the Plaintiff because it does not accurately depict Plaintiff's credit history and creditworthiness.

35. At no point after receiving the Written Disputes did American Express and/or Experian, Equifax, and Transunion communicate with Plaintiff to determine the veracity and extent of Plaintiff's Written Disputes.

36. Experian, Equifax, and Transunion relied on its own judgment and the information provided to them by American Express rather than grant credence to the information provided by Plaintiff.
